Mokena Mothers To March at 6:30-7:30

In line with the county drive to conclude the March of Dimes for the Polio victims aid, Mokena mothers will start Thursday night at 6:30 for one hour, and call at the homes which have their porch lights lit.

Everyone should contribute to this cause, for none of us know when this dread enemy of good health will come to the family. Even if you cannot contribute much, what you can give to this cause will be gladly accepted. So just light your porch light and the mothers will know you want to give and they will call for your contribution. They will not call at homes where the porch light is not burning. If you have no porch light, then put a lantern out or any kind of light whereby the mothers will know to call at your home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel as chairman for the Mokena area and the mothers assisting her are: Mesdames Thomas Powers, Dean Rueckert, T. A. Shoop, Ramon Westlund, Gordon Bruce, Hans Muehler, Wesley Cappel, James Horras, John Horras, Stanley Williams, Lloyd Leyerle, Joseph Heim, James Fassett, Ludwig Thiel and Carol Roberts.

An Explanation Of Mokena Water Supplied Subdivisi'ns

Because of an apparent dissatisfaction or questioning by some residents of Mokena concerning the way water mains have been extended in Mokena in connection with Everett Cooper, former president of the village board, and a land trust of the Chicago Title and Trust company, we give the following information received through an interview with Mr. Cooper last Friday.

When a new subdivision is opened in a given territory, if city water is to be supplied, usually that is done by the subdivider. In case of extending water to Parker street, Wolf road and Bryant, and Mineral Springs rather than have the village of Mokena pay for the extension, certain local people advanced the money for the pipe and fire hydrants and the labor of installing it.

This water extension opened new territory in the village whereby new homes could be built from which the village would then receive revenue in taxes. This cost of operation is repaid to the local persons when new homes are connected to the water service by the paying of the water used. The village furnishes the water, but the money received from its use, goes to the paying of the water extension. This also affords the village fire protection with the added water and fire hydrants. This was done through an agreement with the village board through an ordinance and passed by the village board of Mokena.

Of course Mr. Cooper is no different than any other person, when advancing money for a project they are also being benefited. Mr. Cooper is thus being benefited by the building of new homes, and the selling of them and lots, which is justly permitted. And they are more readily sold when water service is available. The village pays no interest on this project, and when the bill is all paid, the village owns the water mains etc. In this way the village is given a service, a better fire protection and an opportunity for more revenue through taxes with only the supplying of water used.

Mr. Cooper and the village board got this ordinance from the village of Plainfield which has operated on this plan for the past 20 years, without which they would not have been able to extend their water mains.

One of these water extensions was done under the administration of Harry Mall as board president, and the other two while Mr. Cooper was president.

Mokena Boy Has Interesting Guest

Cpl. Robert Murphy visited his parents this past week before making a change to Camden, South Carolina. As his guest Robert brought Johann Irwanski who is sponsored by Col. Craig on his farm near Fort Riley, Kansas. Johann and Robert were very close friends while Robert was overseas working in the stables in Germany. Both these boys work at the training of army horses.

Robert and Johann will leave for Camden, South Carolina some time in May to take the army horses to the 1952 Olympics which are being held in Helsinki, Finland.

While at Ft. Riley Robert was at two American Horse Shows, one at Kansas City and one at Denver. He was under Capt. Robert Borg's instruction and they brought back high honors.

Johann voiced his opinion as this, "America is wonderful. It gives one so many opportunities." Upon Johann's return from Helsinki, he expects to join the U. S. army so he can finish his schooling. This boy has not heard from or seen his parents and family since 1940 when the Russians drove them out of Lithuania. He more than enjoyed his stay and his biggest amazement was the cordial hospitality everyone has shown him here in our country.

During Youth Week, January 27 to February 3, the "Call" to Christian commitment and action is being issued and met in churches and community meetings. The goal is one million Christian youth committed to God and to united Christian youth action.

Some will also participate in a convocation at the Central Presbyterian church in Joliet at 7:30 next Sunday evening.

The Youth Fellowship of the church had full charge of the morning service on last Sunday in which the program of the U. C. Y. M. was presented to the congregation. Joyce Cummons was the leader. A symposium was presented as follows: "The Challenge of Youth in the World of Today" by Fritz Lehmann, "What is the Call?" by Wilbur Rauch, "The Call of Commitment to Christ" by David Kropp, "Action on the church and Community Level" by Phyllis Gaddis, and "Action on the World Level" by Patricia Perley.

Many Complete New Designs, Changes; Coachcraft Body Makes Its Debut

Mokena Civic Asso., Elects New Officers

The Mokena Civic Association held its regular monthly business meeting Wednesday evening, January 23 in the VFW hall.

The principle business of the regular January business meeting was the election of officers for the year. Following action upon the recommendations of the nominating committee and open nominations from the floor the following officers were unanimously elected:

President, Chas. Swanberg; vice president, Dean H. Rueckert; secretary, Geo. H. Bills, treasurer, Fred G. Lehmann, and trustees, Alfred C. Hatch, Geo. F. Wannemacher and Virginia Sherwood.

The meeting was well attended by many new people from Mokena and the vicinity. Discussion of timely topics was actively entered into by the entire group, members and guests, and gives promise of high interest in civic improvement and civic problems during the coming year.

Chairmen of the regular standing committees of the association have not as yet been named, but are under consideration by President Swanberg. It is through these standing committees that the full operations of the group are carried out in a systematic fashion and progress reports are made to the entire group. Support of all residents of Mokena and the vicinity is asked in attendance at regular meetings and in their committee work.

RINKE SISTERS MAKE MAGAZINE NEWS COLUMNS

The Rinke sisters, who operate The Three Sisters' Aviaires, of Mokena, are the interesting subject of a story in a recent issue of the Rock Island News Digest. Mary Ann, Gladys and Carolyn are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Rinke, the former employed in the freight traffic department of the railroad. Mary Ann, the oldest is a high school junior.

The article tells of Mr. Rinke's work during his vacation building additional equipment for the 32 pairs of parakeets, now raising their families which include blue, yellow and white specimens. The business began as a hobby two years ago when the youngest, Carolyn, received a bird as a gift.

The girls' work includes feeding and caring for the birds as well as finger-training them. The young business women are planning to exhibit at the next show held by the Greater Chicago Cage Bird club and feel they have what it takes to win trophies.

Farm Bureau Holds Training Schools

The Will County Farm Bureau and its subsidiaries are holding a training school for a group of their members. This schooling is planned to be held annually for the purposes of educating the membership about the organization to which they belong. The first in the series of meetings was held January 23d. At this first meeting, a discussion on extension of the Farm Bureau was conducted by an extension official and a member of the Illinois Agricultural association staff from Chicago. The afternoon program was a discussion on roads, schools, taxation and legislation by an official of the IAA.

The next meeting was January 30 and the last in the series will be held February 6. There are now 3,700 members in Will county and the state organization has 185,000 members.

Motor scooter accidents in cities killed about 65 persons & injured 5,000 in a year. The National Safety Council says more than half the injured riders were 15 to 19 years old, only 5 percent were women.

News is being made this week with the coming out of the 1952 Ford cars and trucks. They are on show starting Friday, February 1 in the show rooms of Cooper and Hostert Ford garage in Mokena, and in the A. C. Bauch Ford garage in Frankfort.

The Ford division of Ford Motor company is announcing three completely new lines of Ford passenger cars for 1952. Ford is exclusive in the high volume car field this year with foam rubber padding in both front and rear seats of all passenger car models. All seats are designed with pillow-back cushioning and fit the body contour. Both front and rear seats have newly designed zig-zag springs.

Ford is exclusive in its field in using new power pivot clutch and brake pedals which are suspended from a heavy bracket anchored to the instrument and dash panels.

The new pedals give the driver freer foot room and the new linkage adds leverage advantage in clutching and braking. The suspension also eliminates pedal holes in the floorboard and moves the master brake cylinder from the floor pan to an accessible and protected place under the hood.

Ford's "Hydra-Coil" front springs and "Viscous Control" shock absorbers highlight the riding qualities of the new cars and station wagons. There are six different sets of front coil springs to match the weight and equipment of the various models.

Ford Coachcraft bodies are introduced to the public for the first time on the 1952 Ford passenger cars. They feature completely new all-steel structure and all-new styling, with curved one-piece windshields and rear windows.

Visibility has been increased on all 1952 Ford cars by the narrowing and positioning of the front pillars and by the use of more glass.

Another safety factor is the full-width defroster extending across the windshield's length. Redesigned wipers also cover a wide area of the windshield.

Readers Viewpoint

Mokena, Illinois
January 25, 1952

Editor News-Bulletin:
I have just read the News-Bulletin issued yesterday, and then I read it again thinking, and hoping that I had read it wrong, but it read the same the second time.

First, I noticed that the Village Board had paid an engineering firm a fee of $500.00 for a survey in connection with water and drainage systems.

Second, I noticed that the "preliminary" report given by the engineering firm calls for a total expenditure of $735,000.00 (what will the final report show?) Doing a little quick figuring I find this represents 52 1/2 percent of the total valuation of the village. Will our grandchildren be able to finish paying this amount?

Next, I noticed the report of the "audit" of the village books for which I understand the Village board paid a fee of $300.00—what did we get for this $300.00?

I am beginning to wonder if I will be able to live in Mokena much longer and keep up my taxes, with the Village Board spending our money like wild men.

A Worried Home Owner

Dear Editor:

I read the news you had in last week's paper about the village trustees wanting to put in all these new drainage system ideas and I added all the figures up. Do you realize it comes to $735,000.00?

I may not be too smart but I do know I will lose my home if such things are in the minds of our town leaders. Maybe they will say they won't put all this in at once but I am afraid of anyone who thinks up so many things. We better be careful about this.

Then in another place you tell about drainage for $350,000 and $185,000 and where they paid a bookkeeper $300 and $500 to the engineers. I never remember any of our board paying out such money before and when I was reading this I couldn't see where our other boards were crooked or took away money. We figured on having the best board we ever had and now I think it is the worst board when I read about all this money. We need reliable people to run our village.

New Deep-freeze Meals on Rock Island Diners

Spiraling food and labor costs, long the contributing factors to steadily increasing losses in the operation of railroad dining car service faced the head-on impact of a brand new approach to the whole problem devised by the Rock Island Lines.

J. D. Farrington, the system's president, announced the Rock Island's revolutionary step in the introduction of wide-scale use of frozen foods coupled with new kitchen techniques.

Taking the place of the diner's time-honored coal range and bulky steam tables will be a warming oven, deep-freeze boxes, and serving tables. Into the freeze boxes aboard the car will go a vast variety of food which has previously been prepared in the master kitchen of the Rock Island's commissary in Chicago and then deep-frozen for future use.

As ordered by the patrons, a complete meal will be removed from the deep-freeze containers and placed in the warming oven. In a matter of minutes it will be ready for the patron to start with his soup course.

Such items as prime rib of beef (you can have it exactly the way you like it—well, medium or rare), breaded veal cutlets, filet mignon, young tom turkey, chicken Maryland, roast pork, roast lamb, and baked fish will adorn the daily menus. There will be 15 separate lunch-eon menus and as many for dinner, thus providing a variety that defies repetition for several days.

Breakfast sweet rolls with frosting and other pastry delicacies will be so fluffy and light that one might suspect they had just been made.

Here's a sample of a luncheon menu featuring the new freeze method to be available on the Des Moines Rocket and Peoria Rocket around Feb. 1:

Creole shrimp gumbo or consommé, Waldorf salad, fruit or vegetable juice, and choice of entree including filet of fish, swiss steak, breaded veal cutlet, and pot roast of beef with vegetables: mashed potatoes, fresh vegetable, pie, pudding, or ice cream and beverage

This will be served with an ear to the Rock Island's new dining car slogan: "Eating on the Rocket's Easy on the Pocket."

The setup of tables has been changed, with bright, new place mats for each plate on the table. Missing will be the numerous side dishes that formerly crowded the table service. Waiters will provide cutlery as needed for each course, rather than follow the old custom of placing knife, fork, spoon, soup spoon, butter-knife and so forth at the same time.

Service of food will be much faster as a result of the new system and hot dishes will be just that when they are placed on the table.

How Service Men Absent May Vote

Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett today released a synopsis of the state Military and Naval voting law for the benefit of Illinois men and women in the armed services. The synopsis explains the procedure by which a citizen in one of the fighting forces may vote by absentee ballot in the April 8 primary, in the June 2 Cook county judicial election, and in the November 4 statewide general election.

First day absent voters in the armed services, or a legal representative, could make an application for an official primary ballot, Mr. Barrett said, was December 31, 1951. Time for making application under the Soldier Voting act, he said, is not more than 100 days before an election and not less than five days before an election, which means April 3 will be the deadline for applying for a military absentee ballot.

"In response to numerous requests from various military camps and those in the military service, I have compiled in concise form the Illinois law relative to those in the military and naval services," said Secretary Barrett. "Copies are available upon request of the Elections Division in the Secretary of State's office at Springfield, of county clerks or of the offices of Boards of election commissions."

The soldier voting law is applicable only to those in the armed services. For wives or husbands who are not in the service, the civilian absentee law applies. This law sets March 10 as the first day for a civilian voter to apply for an absentee ballot, with April 3 the deadline for filing such an application. A ballot is mailed with a return self-addressed envelope.

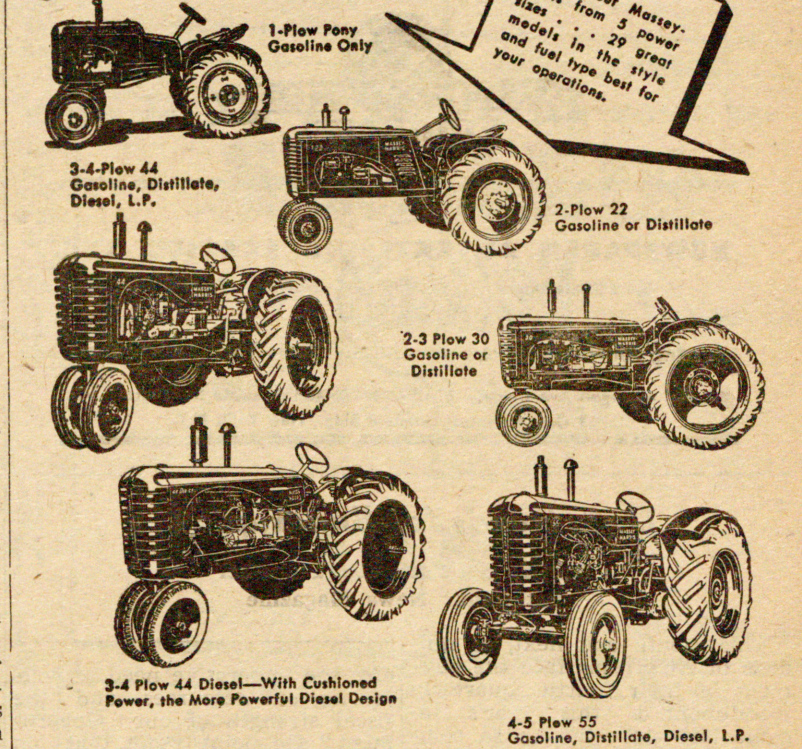

Mr. Barrett said the soldier voting law provides the applicant may apply direct to his county clerk for an application form, or (2) by making application on the federal post card having free air mail privilege; or (3) any mother, father, sister, brother, husband or wife may request that a ballot be forwarded to the absentee voter. Registration of voters in the armed services, Secretary Barrett said, is not required. Absentee ballots, he said, must be in the office of the county clerk by election day.

U. S. Heads for Bankruptcy

By Graham Patterson, Publisher
Pathfinder News Magazine

This month and next, as millions of Americans face the payment of their fourth quarterly installment of this year's income tax—with the added complication of Christmas bills—they will be unpleasantly reminded that they have a direct personal interest in the way our Government spends our money. As we make out our tax return, a good question to ask is this: "How much of this is really necessary—and how much would I be able to keep for myself if the Government would cut down on its wasteful spending?"

Taxes have already reached the confiscatory stage, yet we are given to understand they will go even higher. Visible and invisible taxes against the average man or woman in the United States now take about 28 per cent of his or her income; in the top brackets it reaches as high as 90 per cent. And we face higher defense expenditures, additional billions of aid to other countries—and higher taxes to pay for it all.

Admittedly, we must build up our defense and restore the armed might we so recklessly and unwisely threw away when World War II ended. But even in our defense expenditures, great economies could be effected.

There is even greater room for savings in our non-defense spending. My friend Henry J. Taylor, the noted economist, author and journalist, said recently that he considered it almost treason to spend a single dime of the taxpayers' money unnecessarily, when we face such heavy and unavoidable demands on our resources for the defense of ourselves and our allies.

Senator Harry F. Byrd said in a speech before the Senate some months ago: "Waste and squandering of public funds comes first among the irresponsible policies of the Administration at Washington... Faced with the necessity for long-range expenditures such as a never before confronted us, all of us, including the President, must recognize the imperative need of conserving our resources and the fiscal strength of our Government." He pointed out that on Jan. 15 Mr. Truman said in a message to Congress: "The Government must practice rigid economy in its non defense activities." Yet a week later, Mr. Truman sent to Congress a budget that actually increased domestic civilian spending to its highest level.

Exclusive of the military, of interest on debt, of veterans' costs and foreign aid, the President recommended domestic civilian expenditures of $9,800,000,000 as compared to $3,600,000,000 in the postwar peak of 1946.

The number of Federal employees has been increasing at the rate of nearly 1,500 a day for a year; today it totals about 2,500,000. The yearly cost of the Federal civilian payroll is now averaging $8,500,000,000—more than it cost at the peak of World War II. Senator Byrd warned: "Plans are already made to increase the number of Federal employees to nearly 3,000,000... At least 500,000... can be laid off, saving nearly $2,000,000,000 annually... With the President's co-operation the Federal budget could be trimmed to the extent of at least $8,000,000,000 without sacrificing a single essential Federal function." That means a saving of almost $200 per family.

We face years of heavy defense expenditures, that we may be able to defend ourselves if war should come. General Eisenhower has said the emergency may last for 20 to 30 years. But no matter how strong we may be militarily, Russia can still defeat us by destroying our free enterprise system. That system can be destroyed by vast over-spending and excessive taxation.

Russia is counting on us to defeat ourselves. Faced with a colossal national debt and enormous defense expenditures for a long period, we must stop the waste and reckless squandering of the people's money—or end up in national bankruptcy.

ERICKSON FILES FOR GOVERNOR

(Statement by William N. Erickson, President of the Cook County Board of Commissioners and candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, as he officially entered the race and filed his petitions with the Secretary of State in Springfield.)

"In response to more than 80,000 written petitions by qualified Republican voters, I have officially entered the Republican primary as a candidate for Governor of the State of Illinois.

"By count my office has received 84,050 petitions and each mail delivery was adding to the total as I left for Springfield. These petitions were signed by men and women in every section of our state, an outpouring unprecedented in the modern political history of Illinois.

"I can only interpret this response to my candidacy as another symptom of the unrest which stirs in our people under the faulty leadership of the Democrat incumbent. They have had enough: enough of visionary and fumbling leadership, enough of roads full of holes, cigarette tax scandals, horsemeat frauds, and the incompetence which led to the West Frankfort mine disaster. They seek leadership that has won its spurs and proved its ability.

"My campaign will rest on these two foundations: my record as an administrator dedicated to the principles of our constitution, and a constructive program to meet the needs of our people.

"To each of those who signed my petitions and to every person interested in wholesome government for the State of Illinois, I pledge a vigorous and untiring campaign for nomination and election to office.

"With the aid of practical experts in every phase of state administration and state problems I will present to the voters a program designed to secure for the citizens of Illinois the same sound administration exemplified by my years as president of the Cook County Board."

Mokena School News

First graders are growing up. We can now count by tens to fifty. We can write any number up to fifty. It has been hard to learn but most of us have mastered it.

We are reading the unit about farm life. We are making two large farms on large white paper. We are drawing the things we voted to draw. Everything is quite realistic.

Spelling is making quite a hit. Last week we had our first test and over half got 100.

We hope those penquins with the three dimensional beaks, cut free hand, found a welcome in your home last Monday. The children were surely proud of them.—Minnie L. Pester.

Second Grade
We have been studying about the different phases of the moon in our science class. We have illustrated these shapes by cutting illustrations from construction paper. We have also studied about some of the constellations.

Several of the children have brought puppets to school and have organized original plays with the puppets as the characters in the plays.

We have been learning new addition combinations in Arithmetic. These combinations are written on bright colored paper, and we have games with these flash cards.

Because we have become such good manuscript printers, we are ready to start what we call "Fun Writing". This means we are learning to write like grown up people.

The teachers from the other rooms have been gathering in this room once a week at noon to enjoy the delicious pies brought in by Mrs. Ed. Carroll. This is a special treat, and the teachers thank Mrs. Carroll for her thoughtfulness.—Phyllis Renfro.

Third and Fourth Grades
In keeping with our study of the Mediterranean Lands, girls and boys of the fourth grade, by using the slide projector and a slide copied by George Phelps from our Peoples of Other Lands workbook, drew maps of the area studied and labeled the important points. We have arranged a bulletin board using some of the maps, also drawings of Mt. Vesuvius, the Boot, flags of countries of the Mediterranean Lands, and other points of study which the children wished to express.

Third grade children made use of the ruler and the fractional parts of inches by measuring, drawing, cutting, and pasting figures on colored construction paper. Besides obtaining the practical practice in measuring, some pleasing designs were made.

To enhance our study of Time the third grade is arranging a Time bulletin board.

Learning the Windmill Folk Game at the closing of our Holland unit afforded a fitting closing, we felt.

We were happy to have Dolores Cooper and Dorothy Fchl as visitors in our room. We understand that both girls plan to become teachers, so we hope that their visit with us will be of some practical value.—Mary Joy Leedom.

Fourth and Fifth Grades
Our music librarian, Wilbur Teske and Everett Heincke, are doing splendid work in distributing songbooks at our weekly music periods. Music of various countries are being studied and sung.

Fractions in the fifth grade are proving to be a challenge. Pictures of fractions are being displayed in the room under the supervision of Jo Ann Tischer and Claudia Halverson.

Book reports are being turned in showing the amount of reading completed at the end of the half year.

Geriann Hull, our librarian, is to be complimented on the netness of appearance of our library. She has arranged all biographies in a group; all general reading books together, and all reading circle books in a group.

Sixth Grade
The sixth grade is studying about South America in geography. The class drew physical maps of the continent showing vegetation, rivers, and mountainous areas. Later we will make political maps of the countries and principal cities.

Mary Helen Cox is a new member of our class. She entered January 24 from Hutsonville, Ill. We now have 14 boys and 11 girls in the room.

In Art class we learned to cut the letters of the alphabet from folded squares of construction paper. The next lesson we made posters.

Sheila Bennett and a group of girls decorated our bulletin board with Valentine designs. We will have a Valentine party February 14.

We have a large map of Illinois displayed in our room. Mrs. Pester distributed them to each class.—Edith Warning.

Understanding

Lesson for February 3, 1952

PEOPLE are like books. Some can read them, some can't. You can put a thing down in black and white and still some people will not understand, simply because they can't read. If a person is illiterate it makes no difference how plainly a book is printed or how big the type is or how clear the author's sentences. So a person can be read by some of his neighbors, like a book in plain English; to others who are just as close to him (close, that is, measured by a foot-rule) he might as well be written in Egyptian hieroglyphics for anything they can make out of him.

Dr. Foreman

Strange Dinner Party

TRUE of all men, this was and is true of Jesus. Luke tells of a dinner party where he was a guest, and puts the spotlight on three persons there: Jesus, the host Simon, and an unnamed woman.

The woman was not supposed to be there; she just wandered in off the street. Not that she was a stranger, exactly; she was well enough known in the village so that the host knew what sort of woman she was, even if (being a respectable man) he did not know her name.

Like all guests in those days, Jesus had taken off his sandals and was reclining on the couch beside the dinner table. This woman stood behind him and wept. Her tears fell on his bare feet and she wiped them dry with her long hair.

Jesus at first paid no attention, but the host was scandalized. How could Jesus take it so calmly? How could he let such a woman touch him?

The conversation that went on, as Luke reports it, between Jesus and Simon, shows that the poor woman of the street understood Jesus' heart, while the leading citizen, whose house it was, did not understand Jesus at all. One could read Jesus, the other found him a closed book. Why?

A Door Barred

THE MAN could not read Jesus' mind and heart because, for one thing, his own mind was made up as to the kind of person Jesus ought to be. He supposed Jesus was the same sort of person as himself—proud, sensitive, careful of his social standing, unwilling to associate with the "lower classes," wanting to be respectable much more than he wanted to be helpful.

In his mind he carried a ready-made pattern of what a "Prophet" ought to be, and so when one who was greater than all the prophets sat at his own dinner table, he could not see him for what he was.

His eyes were blinded, he could not read Jesus, the door to understanding him was closed. He had never learned to read the kind of language which Jesus' life wrote large.

Then there was another reason why this man could not "see" Jesus. It was his own pride. Simon looked down on Jesus so much that he could not even treat him with ordinary politeness.

A Door Open

BUT the woman understood. She did not know all there was to know about Jesus. And still she understood the depth of his heart.

The door of his heart opened to her—she could read the clear writing of his spirit. She understood him because she was humble. She did not try to fit him into her pattern; in his presence she knew, as the host Simon did not, that this was the true pattern of life and hers the false. She understood him too because of her love.

And so in spite of the immense difference between them, there flowed the light of understanding, even before a word had been spoken. She could read the bright word FORGIVENESS which to Simon was only a blank.

And So Today

TO this very day, some people can read Jesus while others cannot. And in between are uncounted people who can read him only more or less dimly as through glasses that are not clean, or through the smoke of a city twilight.

But it is still true that pride and prejudice not only keep us from reading the lives of those around us, they keep us from reading the mind of Jesus.

And it is still true that humility and love are the great teachers; they show us how to read the lives of those around us every day, and best of all they teach us how to read the word "Forgiveness" in the mind and heart of Jesus... which is the heart of God.

ILLINOIS TAX FACTS

By George E. Mahin, Executive Secretary
Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

The bell has rung again for a new round in the old fight between the little people back home and big government in Washington. At the end of every round for a long time now big government has ended up bigger, and the little people back home have ended up paying for it—in less freedom, in higher prices, in higher taxes.

Reports from Washington indicate though that our lawmakers, during their recent two month legislative holiday, were told plenty by the people back home, with the result that there appears to be little likelihood of any more new or higher taxes being voted by Congress this session.

With the big election coming up in November, however, the easy and traditional course for Congress will be to pass the appropriation bills, kill any legislation for new or higher taxes, let the Federal debt become still more astronomical to pay the difference.

Thus the spenders will be happy, and we, the people back home, will be satisfied because we won't realize until too late that we have in fact been stuck with another tax, the most vicious tax of all, increased inflation, higher prices.

That's the theory, but maybe we people back home are beginning to wake up to the fact that bigger government and bigger debt mean higher prices for meat and groceries and everything else we buy, and that our only real security for the future lies in a Balanced Federal budget without any further tax increases, which simply means that the Federal government won't be able to spend more than its income of over 70 billion dollars.

Can this be done without jeopardizing national defense? We who read the newspaper accounts of government waste and corruption know that it can. We know from the Hoover Commission Report that it can. The conference of thirty-seven state-wide taxpayer organizations throughout the country, of which the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois is one, knows that it can be done, and have made a balanced Federal budget without any further tax increases the keystone of their 1952 federal programs.

Members of the House of Representatives will be up for reelection in November of this year. By their votes at the current session of Congress we, the people back home who will have to make our choices at the ballot box in November, will know how they stand on this all-important issue, and on the bills to carry out the Hoover Commission recommendations which will help make a balanced budget possible.

From Congressman N. M. Mason
A PRESIDENT SHOULD BE CAREFULLY SELECTED—A President of the United States wields more power in the world than any other ruler except Stalin, because our President is in charge of the most powerful Nation in the world. He remains in office for four years no matter what mistakes or blunders he may make. He can be stupid, inept, arrogant, careless, thoughtless, cocky or vulgar—but these qualities are not legal causes for removal by impeachment under our Constitution.

A President can appoint morons to office who are totally unfit for the responsibility of public office and we can do nothing about it. He can commit ghastly blunders in both foreign and domestic policies and we can do nothing about it. He can order thousands of American fathers and sons into "police action" to be killed or wounded, and we can do nothing about it.

Therefore, "We, the People," should exercise great care in the selection of a President. We should look the whole Nation over to find the most outstanding man we can find, a man whose mental, moral, and spiritual qualities are above reproach.

MCGRATH, OF ALL PEOPLE! President Truman has given Attorney General McGrath the task of cleaning out the graft and corruption in Washington. Since McGrath himself is under fire for failure to prosecute tax evaders, and for condoning the acts of Lamar Caudle, his assistant, the appointment of McGrath to do the job of cleaning up is a farce. It is the same as selecting a known gambler to clean up gambling, or a known bootlegger to enforce our prohibition laws. Why entrust a man who is responsible for the mess with the job of cleaning it up. Appointing McGrath to head up the cleaning squad in Washington is an insult to the moral sensibilities of the American people.

HELLO FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS!

Our 1952 Safety, Friendly and Business Message to Our Many Thousands of Friends in all this Great Section - - - Dedicated to Truth, Justice and Continued Prosperity!

LET ME POINT OUT!

that we traffic police can maintain Safety only with your complete co-operation. Our rules are your guide to safe driving—follow them with care and you'll be saving lives!

Please drive, work and play safely—these are school days. Protect our children—and, remember, it is always better to be careful than always to be sorry.

In the face of all our many world problems and unrest, everything today points to a record-breaking money and business period—not to be retarded soon—so say all the nation's great prognosticators of big business and world affairs.

Through a very careful survey and comparisons, we know there is no better merchandise, variety of stock, or service, anywhere at any price, second to none, than can be had in our section at a price range that has always been conducive and pleasing to all concerned at all times.

Remember, Blue Island, Harvey, Tinley Park, Orland Park, WorthOak Forest, Midlothian, Markham and all this vast territory we serve are neighbors with much in common! Let's be good neighbors and treat each other like good neighbors.

Whenever your desires and needs cannot be met in your respective communities continue to visit around the territory on your shopping and service tours. You cannot do better. And, you are always welcome as well as saving money and being a community booster.

Again, may we remind you on behalf of the National Safety Council and the grand people of all this great section as a whole to please drive, work and play safely . . . Save a Life . . . And, remember, the life you save may be your own!

All we good Americans, today, more than ever must have faith and pull together. Don't sell America short. We must and will crack the Iron curtain. Peace and justice will be ours with God's help.

Sponsored by the following progressive and public-spirited business and civic leaders of this great prosperous community who pledge themselves to unity, progress, safety and the American way of life:

MM model 11A disc harrow turns in as small a radius as any row-crop tractor. Tension springs hold the gangs in a level position so that the harrow penetrates at a uniform depth over its full width. With this construction the harrow is flexible for good work on uneven ground, and one side or the other does not dig in on turns.

Ease of angling is another outstanding feature. A touch on MM's new hydraulic control, called Uni-Matic Power, makes adjustment of disc angle on the go a simple matter. If your old harrow needs replacing, drop in to see us. We think MM harrows offer you the most in good performance, economy, and dependability.
